

Project Assistant: Machine Learning/ Statistical Analysis in R

The Interdisciplinary Centre for Water Resources (ICWaR), Indian Institute of Science (IISc), Bangalore is looking for a suitable candidate for the position of Project Assistant. Details are provided below:

Qualification: BE/ B Tech (Computer Science, Electrical or related field) final year or graduated

Salary: As per Department of Science and Technology (DST) norms

Number of vacancies: 01

Experience: Class project experience related to position is necessary

Job location: Bangalore

Job Description: Strong, demonstrable experience in statistical analysis, machine learning, programming (preferably in R).

Last date to apply: July 10, 2019

Other details

Title of the project: Intelligent Water Supply Network Monitoring and Control for Equitable Distribution of WATER within a Mega city (EQWATER)

Sponsors: Ministry of Human Resource Development, Ministry of Urban Development, Government of India

Industry partners: Larsen & Toubro, Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB)

Duration: 6 months initially, extendable on the basis of performance and project requirements

Please email the following information to Bihu Suchetana at sbihu2018@gmail.com by the last date mentioned above:

1. Complete CV
2. A brief note on why you think you are suitable for this position.